

E-Mail Fraud

Fraudsters' e-mail individuals' state that you can help them fight terrorism and related money laundering by verifying your personal information. They then attempt to lead consumers to a counterfeit Website designed to trick recipients into divulging financial data, such as credit card numbers, account user names, passwords and Social Security numbers.

Always be suspicious of any e-mail with urgent requests for personal financial information. NASCOGA Federal Credit Union will never ask for personal information via e-mail.